Profile Introduction

Jessica counsels private and public companies, developers, government entities, and institutional investors. She also has significant experience in counselling wireless communications providers, and has negotiated hundreds of leases and easement agreements on behalf of national wireless carriers with various federal, state, and local governmental agencies, and other wireless carriers. Jessica has a wide range of experience in handling both straightforward transactions and complex, multifaceted projects. Her practice includes leasing, acquisition and disposition, and development.

Jessica relocated to Washington from Australia a decade ago, bringing with her adaptability and a talent for handling pressure with ease.
