Profile Introduction

Laura Harper's practice focuses on corporate and securities law. She represents companies in all stages, including startup, in a broad range of business-related matters including supporting ongoing operations, financing through private offerings or venture capital, strategic alliances and corporate restructuring. She also has extensive experience assisting clients with both sell- and buy-side mergers and acquisitions.

Prior to joining Summit Law Group, Laura was a corporate attorney in Alabama, both in-house at a biotechnology nonprofit company and in private practice.

Laura enjoys spending time with her family, including hiking and camping, and volunteering with her daughters' Girl Scout troops.
